

Military Veterans Day at the Indiana State House
Tuesday, January 9, 2018
Indiana State House
200 W Washington
Indianapolis, IN 46204

Hosted by Representative John Bartlett
Representative Jim Baird

Department Commander Johnny Capps looks forward to seeing you at the Indiana State House for this annual event. The event will honor your Service and give you the opportunity to speak with your legislators. We will again have a March to the State House led by the Indiana National Guard bringing our continued message:

"Hoosier veterans are the best investment Indiana can make."

0800 Doors Open at the State House - A light breakfast will be provided

0900 March to the State House, Indiana National Guard, Robert Orr Drive

0830-1030 Information Booths in the State House

1030 - 11:00 Program, Keynote Speaker: Governor Eric Holcomb, Navy Veteran

1100-1300 Lunch, Meet and Greet with Legislators (Please make an appointment)

Call your legislators and let them know you will be at the State House and want to meet with them on January 9th during the fourth annual Military and Veterans Day at the Indiana State House. Let them hear your Veteran Voice! To find your legislator go to <http://iga.in.gov/legislative/find-legislators/> put in your address and all your representatives will be shown.

Parking will be available at American Legion Post 64 on South Holt Road, a shuttle bus will take you to a from the State House, or you can find parking around the State House if you get there early.

For more information contact Richard Leirer or Russell Pryor, Department of Indiana Legislative Team.