1 February 2025

Greetings,

January was a slow month for District Meetings. There are four Districts that do not have a scheduled meeting in January, and another had to cancel due to the weather. With the nature of Indiana weather this is a situation with which we must deal. Four months between meetings makes it hard to stay connected with the others Posts in the District. Hopefully, the Posts in these Districts are keeping the lines of communications open for the continuation of business and more importantly the well-being of Comrades in their District.

A big shout-out to our State and National Legislative Committees along with the Membership Team. They never let up. The Indiana Veterans Legislative Day was well attended by the Department and went well. Countless hours are being spent on our legislative priorities both state and national. The membership teams have been out there in the trenches recruiting and getting our mission known to the public. The efforts of the members of both committees go unseen and unappreciated by most. The Department of Indiana owe them a heartfelt Thank You for all their hard work.

February is shaping up to be a great time for your Posts and Districts to catch up on your programs. This is how you make sure your officers and members receive the recognition they rightly deserve. At the end of the month and the first of March the Washington DC Conference takes place. All the VFW Departments from throughout the world converge on our nation's capital to lobby for Veterans rights. Please wish us luck. A show of force is the surest way to get our earned benefits.

As I write this letter the snow just continues to accumulate. We have not had to deal with this much snow and ice for quite some time. Sandy and I are praying for each and everyone's safety.

About the VFW

We trace our roots back to 1899 when veterans of the Spanish-American War (1898) and the Philippine Insurrection (1899-1902) founded local organizations to secure rights and benefits for their service. Many arrived home wounded or sick. There was no medical care or veterans' pension for them, and they were left to care for themselves. In their misery, some of these veterans banded together and formed organizations that would eventually band together and become known as the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Our Mission: To foster camaraderie among United States veterans of overseas conflicts. To serve our veterans, the military and our communities. To advocate on behalf of all veterans.

Our Vision: Ensure that veterans are respected for their service, always receive their earned entitlements, and are recognized for the sacrifices they and their loved ones have made on behalf of this great country.

VFW Announces Annual Publications Contest

Submissions must be mailed by April 1

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (Jan. 5, 2026) – The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is now accepting submissions for its 2025 National Publications Contest. VFW-related publications published up to four times annually will be judged in four categories. Non-related VFW publications published up to five times annually will also be accepted.

The categories are:

Department-level publications:

- Newspaper/Newsletter
 - Defined as being printed on newspaper stock.
- Best Feature Story
 - All publications judged together in this category and submitted separately. The story must be a published article of at least 300 words. It can be originally written by your newspaper/magazine staff or by a freelance writer, or be reprinted from a newspaper within your state. Feature articles published in online/electronic newsletters, newspapers or magazines also are eligible, but must be printed in color and submitted via USPS, not email.
- Magazine
 - Defined by physical size and paper stock, or designed for online distribution as a PDF. Online/electronic magazines must be printed in color and submitted via USPS, not email.

District/Post-level publications:

- Overall Design and Content

Each category will be awarded three places: a grand award (first overall), silver (second overall) and bronze (third overall). Grand prize winners will receive a plaque, and the silver and bronze awards will take the form of a certificate suitable for framing.

The VFW Publication Department's awards system conforms to that of professional societies within the association publishing industry: National Mature Media Awards, Association Trends, Society of National Association Publications, Society of Professional Journalists and Communications Concepts. In other words, the same types of awards for which VFW magazine competes.

All entries submitted must have been published sometime between Jan. 1, 2025, and Dec. 31, 2025.

Examples of eligible subjects for the Best Feature submissions include operations of state VA departments, National Guard/Reserve unit deployments overseas, troop-support activities, Department VFW programs, dedication of state memorials and state or local commemorative events for the 50th anniversary of Vietnam. Editorials or opinion articles WILL NOT be considered this year. Articles written by VFW magazine staff and reprinted in District, Post or Department publications will not be considered. Only one issue per publication will be reviewed by judges. DO NOT send multiple editions, as judges will not review all of them.

All entries should be sent directly to the VFW National Headquarters. Similar to last year, the competition will be open to any submission, not just the winning submissions from the Department level. This is to remove any bias at all levels. One copy of each submission should be postmarked by April 1, 2026, to:

Publications Contest
VFW Magazine
406 W. 34th Street, Suite 523
Kansas City, MO 64111

All issues and articles published between Jan. 1, 2025, and Dec. 31, 2025, qualify.
